

Quick Brick Training Academy

E-Safety code of conduct

Parents/carers:

please read and discuss this agreement with your child and then sign it, ask your child to sign it, and return it to the QBTA staff.

If you have any questions or concerns please speak to Lee Barker/Gary Partridge.

Young person's agreement

I will be responsible for my behaviour when using the internet, including social media platforms, games and apps. This includes the resources I access and the language I use.

I will not deliberately browse, download or upload material that could be considered offensive or illegal.

If I accidentally come across any such material I will report it immediately to the tutor.

I will not send anyone material that could be considered threatening, bullying, offensive or illegal.

I will not give out any personal information online, such as my name, phone number or address.

I will not reveal my passwords to anyone.

I will not arrange a face-to-face meeting with someone I meet online unless I have discussed this with my parents and/or staff from QBTA and am accompanied by a trusted adult.

I understand that my internet use at Quick brick Training Academy will be monitored and logged and can be made available to the head of centre.

I understand that these rules are designed to keep me safe and that if I choose not to follow them, Quick brick Training Academy may contact my parents/carers.
